

Training Programme from 3-5 July, 2017 conducted by National Centre for Cooperative Education (NCCE), New Delhi

National Centre for Cooperative Education has conducted a Leadership Development Programme for Chairmen / Directors of Fishermen's Cooperatives of India from 3-5 July, 2017 at NCCE, New Delhi for development of their managerial skill. 37 participants from different states like Telangana, Maharashtra, M.P., U.P. & Manipur were benefited with this programme. The prime objective of the programme is to develop Leadership quality of the participants so that they can provide good governance and professional management of their cooperative society. The participants have also provided a platform to interact with other participants and discussed the challenges and issues and their solutions for proper functioning of cooperative societies. The role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors are very high to achieve the targets and providing satisfactory services to the members. Therefore, different subjects were incorporated and tailored this programme as a training capsule for Fisheries sector.

Dr. V.K. Dubey, Director NCUI inaugurated the Programme on 3.7.2017 and said, that the Fisheries sector are playing very important role to provide quality fish food on remunerative price and suggested that every society should make a business plan for upcoming years and review also. During the course Sh. B.K. Mishra, Managing Director FISHCOPFED presented an overview the role of FISHCOPFED for development of Fisheries Cooperatives. Dr. Raj Naresh Gopal, Deputy Director, NCDC has taken a session on Schemes of NCDC for Fishermen Cooperatives and Innovative methods for Fish farming, and other relevant topics were discussed by experts / faculties i.e. Cooperative Principles & Values, Qualities and Function of effective leadership, Types & Style of Cooperative Leaders, Insurance schemes for fisheries cooperatives, Cooperative law and Management, Maintenance of books of Accounts and Record in Cooperative Society etc.

On the occasion of valediction, Dr. V.K. Dubey, Director, NCCE said that the knowledge gained by the participants may be utilised in their societies for better prospectus. Shri Anant Dubey, Assistant Director, NCCE coordinated the programme successfully and all the participants highly appreciated the programme.