

NCCE Trained IFFCO Personnel

The NCCE has organized a training programme on Cooperation and Cooperative Management for the personnel of IFFCO Unit, Para Deep (Odisha) from 13-14 September, 2017. As Cooperatives is an Unique Organization and have a special business model based on Cooperative Principle and Values. The programme has designed with the Special Management Capsule so that performance of the employees can improve with the basis of cooperative values and thoughts. The Programme was inaugurated by Shri K.P.Nanda, Head of Training Centre. He focused on cooperative system and its application in the Cooperative Organization like IFFCO. He also said that the IFFCO is such organization which has 100% shares from cooperatives and prime focus to serve its members by providing quality fertilizers, innovative agricultural information to farmers and organized other social development activities in the rural areas. He also focused the importance of such type of training for the IFFCO employees.

Dr. V.K. Dubey, Director, NCUI expressed his views on need and benefits of Cooperative Education and Training for Employees of Cooperative Sectors. He said that this programme will understand the cooperative as well as IFFCO management process so that they aware the working system and their responsibility in their organization as a cooperative employees. The other officers of IFFCO were also present in inaugural session. The Topic like:- Cooperative Thoughts and Concept, Cooperative Principles & Values, Cooperative Business Model, Special Features of a Cooperative Organization Differentiate from Private and Public Sector, Problems and Challenges before Cooperative Movement in India, Salient Features of Multi State Cooperative Act, 2002 and 97th Constitutional Amendment, Cooperative Management with Special Reference IFFCO, Growth and Trends of Cooperative Management in India, Agriculture Input Supply and Extension Services of IFFCO for Agriculture Development and Question and Queries of Participants were discussed in the training programmes in the review of programmes the official of IFFCO have appreciated the programme and suggested such programme must be organized for each employees of the IFFCO. The programme was completed satisfactory.
