

The NCCE trained the trainers (Lady Mobilisers) of NCUI Cooperative Education Field Projects.

NCCE organised a three days Review cum Refresher Course for the Lady Mobilisers (LM's) of its Cooperative Education Field Projects from 1-3 August, 2017 at NCCE, New Delhi.

The objective of the programme to sensitise about Rural based employment and income generating activities so that they can train the rural women accordingly .The programme was designed with the focus on skill development including practical training. For this participants visited NSIC, New Delhi to study the function of different types of projects which can be replicated in rural area for income generating among women beneficiaries.

The programme was inaugurated by Shri N. Satyanarayana, Chief Executive, NCUI. Dr. V. K. Dubey, Director, NCCE and other Senior Officials of NCUI were present on the occasion.

Shri Satyanarayana applauded these project personnel for their work and assured them that NCUI will go an extra mile for their motivational enhancement for better results.

Dr. V. K. Dubey, Director NCCE suggested to acquaint themselves with the policies and direction of the Ministry, so as to implement the same at the grass root level for better performance.

The programme was successfully coordinated by Shri Ramesh Kaul, Deputy Director and Smt. Veena Sachdeva, Asstt. Director, Projects.
