

Kumari Sumita top the 21st Session of NCCE's Diploma

The result of 21st Session of prestigious "Diploma in Cooperative Education and Development" has been declared. 30 candidates have completed the diploma successfully. Ms. Kumari Sumita from AMCOS, Jharkhand is the topper among 37 candidates of this diploma programme with 86.3% marks, followed by Mr. Tarun Katyal (82.8%) from Centre of Cooperative Management, Rohtak (Haryana), Shri Sanoj Bhattarai (81.3%), NCDB, Kathmandu, Nepal are in the top three. This is very prestigious course for beneficiaries / employees of cooperatives of SAARK Countries, Mauritius and India. The prime objects to develop professional management skill among the participants so that they can manage their cooperative organisations properly. The next diploma will be commenced from 3rd October, 2017 to 21st December, 2017 with 50% participants from above mentioned countries.

